

Funding source	United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in Belarus (2) Support to Local Development in the Republic of Belarus
Targeted countries	Belarus
Programme objectives	The main objectives: large-scale information and education campaign, first contest of local initiatives; strengthening of the capacity of local authorities and organisations in the field of Area-Based Development (ABD) and project management; development of ABD passports with the involvement of stakeholders; practical implementation of ABD initiatives, analysis and dissemination of accumulated experience; effective project management.
Programme description	Overall goal of the project is the development of capacity, partnership and initiatives in the Republic of Belarus in the field of management of social and economic development processes at the local level. Expected Outputs: • National capacity of four project regions in the sphere of project activities and implementation of local initiatives is strengthened; • New bottom-up approaches to regional development planning in the Republic of Belarus are applied. Governance and self-governance bodies, public organisations, business community representatives and the population jointly develop Area-Based Development (ABD) Passports and ensure their implementation; • Effective mechanisms of multi-level ABD coordination are created; effective coordination with other Components of the EU Annual Action Program is ensured.
Website and additional links	http://un.by/en/undp/db/86085.html
Status	Ongoing
Overall budget	EUR4,400,000
Maximum budget per candidate	N/A
Contact	Sokolovskaya Ludmilla ph.: +375 44 579 3005 e-mail: liudmila.sakaloukaya@undp.by
Who can candidate?	Different types of organisations
What are the requirements for applying?	N/A
Type of activity funded	Private-sector development
Link with ICT	The programme includes ICT indirectly